The Office of Security sponsored the translation of this 1957 compilation. The book appears to be a store of ammunition to be used in the propaganda campaign against the Free World, particularly the U.S. Particular attention is given to CIA. From a rapid and superficial reading there seems to be a close approximation between the allegation in this volume regarding CIA and what subsequently has appeared in English in Aptheker's "The Truth About Hungary," (1957) pages 78-100, and Julius Mader's "Allen's Gangsters in Aktion" (1959) which appeared in East Germany in 1959.
